Editorial

Our accounts have been completed and audited by Mike Thompson. Thank you Mike. Also thank you to John Courtney who manages the magazine finances and advertising. The summary of accounts is included at the back of the magazine. Our accounts are generally healthy, although showing a slight excess of expenditure over income for last year. This is, at least in part, due to the way money comes in over the year, with the main input being over the period where the year changes resulting in funds being carried over to the next year. We certainly have enough money to pay our printing costs!

This month sees the celebration of the Queen's Official 90th Birthday over the weekend of 11th/12th June when the Trooping of the Colour takes place on Saturday and street parties around the country on Sunday. In Corfe there will be an event on the Church lawns on Saturday and a party on the sports field on Sunday. Details of these local events are elsewhere in this edition of the magazine. All at the CVN wish her Majesty a very happy birthday and thank her for the years of dedication she has given to the country.

Stephen
