Editorial

This month we remember all those lost during the wars of the twentieth century and also during all conflicts since. The Remembrance Day service will be on Sunday 12th November. This is in St Edwards's church and is organised by the Royal British Legion. All are very welcome. The service is followed by a short ceremony at the East Street War Memorial where the dead of the village are remembered.

George Preston has written a piece about the Remembrance ceremony in the Millennium diary part of this issue.
